Niki De Saint Phalle - "Tarot Garden" - 1991

Value: $2,000

Starting Bid: $1,600

- 23.7" x 31.5"

- 60.3 x 80 cm

- Lithograph

*Thank you,
Niki Charitable Art Foundation!*

An enfant terrible ever trying to escape the bourgeois existence into which she was born, Niki de Saint-Phalle taught herself painting and rose to artistic prominence through her colorful monumental outdoor sculptures of extravagantly voluptuous female figures. Early in her career, she became known for the abstract paintings she made by placing paint-filled bags above canvases and shooting them—a form of protest against patriarchy and rigidity. Through her “nanas”, a series of life-size papier maché dolls of the proverbial “everywoman”—including brides and mothers giving birth—de Saint-Phalle contemplated women’s societal roles. Later, inspired by Antoni Gaudí’s Parc Güell in Barcelona, she set out to create something equally impressive but made by a woman; the result was Il Giardino dei Tarocchi (The Tarot Garden), a garden filled with colorful sculptures based on Tarot card symbols, which she created over 20 years on land she acquired in Tuscany.

Zeinab Movahed - "I Was There"- 2014 Collection

Value: $3,000
Starting Bid: $1,500

- 5' 2" X 4'
- Acrylic and pencil on canvas
- Artwork from Iran

*Thank you,
Zeinab Movahed!*

Zeinab was born in 1981 in Tehran, Iran, and holds a BA and MA in painting from Tehran Azad University of Arts and Architecture. She has several collections and has been recently featured in a solo exhibition in the Dacia Gallery in New York. The main characteristic of all her work is the deliberate elimination of the woman's face and sometimes whole head, which is a soft protest to the emphasis placed on a woman's sexuality. Zeinab says, "I think the limitations and the censorship in Tehran have led me to deliver my message in a veiled way, which has in return strengthened my artistic work and has been able to get me closer to my own personal language."

Artist: Farnaz Zabetian

Value: $7,000

• 36" x 60"

Starting Bid: $3,500

• Oil on canvas

*Thank you,
Farnaz Zabetian!*

Farnaz Zabetian was born and raised in Tehran, Iran. She started painting when she was 10 years old. Zabetian received her BFA from Azad Art and Architecture University of Tehran in 1998. .

The women in my paintings mirror the image of all eastern women from the part of the world where I come from. These women are a perpetuation of old and deep tumors that have been engrained in an eastern woman like me. A woman who from birth is in a struggle with social taboos, so much so that she will not know how to act without them. My symbolic and expressive look at a woman's portrait is along the same line as the private thoughts that yearn to expose their wounded souls. The fishes and the crows in my paintings are metaphoric displays of fertility of an eastern woman and the chaotic side of her life.

Va de Vi translates to "It's all about wine!" in Spain's Catalan language. Of course, it's all about food, too! Executive Chef Brad Zeller's menu encourages diners to explore and share a variety of eclectic, international small plate portions. Bold tastes encourage diners to explore the large international wine list, easily navigated by tasting notes. Many wines are offered by the glass in addition to pre-arranged flights to allow diners to compare different wines and discover new favorites. A warm, casual elegance defines the ambiance. Outdoors, dine under an ancient oak tree or grab a table in the picturesque lane.

Thank you,

Sepideh Hesami Jewelry!

“Shah Abbasi” is one of the widely used symbols in Persian handcrafted pieces such as decorative tiles and rugs. I have used it with green Jade in this piece to also represent spring and rebirth of the nature. The pendant is all handmade. Each petal cut individually and welded together. It is made of silver and was oxidized to give the item more rustic look.

The day I said no to science, and embraced art was the day that I was reborn. It's one of those decisions that has changed my life for the better. With every piece of jewelry that I design and make, I feel the freedom of choice. Freedom becomes tangible through every piece of jewel that I put together. Having sought training with master designers, I have learned the etiquette of a good design. However, I have joint my Persian heritage with my western life to create the kind of jewelry that brings out the richness and colorfulness of Iran with the contemporary and symmetrical taste of the west.

Rattlesnake Ridge is an estate-owned and certified organic vineyard. Located at the top of Howell Mountain at about 2600 feet, the vines see more sun here than they would on the valley floor; however, it is much colder due to the elevation, and can even snow in the winter. All combined, these factors make for a truly unique wine: bold, strong tannins and an acid backbone that can only come from Howell Mountain.
